

College Career and Military Readiness (CCMR)

College Career and Military Readiness (CCMR) is about preparing students for life after graduation. It is made up of curriculum, resources, programs and activities that give students the tools they need to enter college or the workforce and begin a career.

CTA offers a curriculum with an emphasis on Career and Technology Education (CTE) to prepare students for the workforce or secondary education, based largely on specific student interest. CTA has a goal of 75% of all students in grades 9-12 participating in the CTE program.

Specifically, CTA offers six career clusters that focus on specific areas of interest including:

Architecture and Construction

- Construction Management and Inspection

Arts, AudioVisual Technology and Communication

- Graphic Design and Interactive Media

Business, Marketing, and Finance

- Accounting and Financial Services Program of Study
- Business Management

Human Services

- Health and Wellness

Law and Public Service

- Government and Public Administration
- Law Enforcement

CTA has partnered with Weatherford College to allow students to receive both High School and College Credit simultaneously.

CTA administers the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB) annually.
